AUSTRIAN PRELATE
FORCED BY ALLIES

FORMER CAVALRY OFFICER SUSPECTED OF COMPLICITY IN WAR PLOTTING

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Jan. 11.—The Overseas News agency gives out the following:

"Monsignor Gerlach, first acting private chamberlain to His Holiness, has been forced to leave Rome and has arrived at Lugano, Switzerland. He was the only German prelate in the pope's retinue. The entente, through the intermediary of the Italian government, urgently insisted upon his departure. Although he belonged to the personal service of the Holy Father, the Vatican had to submit to the unprecedented coercion of the entente."

Monsignor Gerlach, who is an Austrian, has during the past two years been the subject of various reports. The latest emanated from Rome on January 8, in connection with the destruction of the Italian battleships Benedetto Brin and Leonardo da Vinci, concerning which an investigation has been in progress. One of the prisoners, an Italian named Ambrogelli, charged with being implicated in the destruction of the warships, alleged that he was the financial agent of Monsignor Gerlach. It was stated that Monsignor Gerlach, prior to Italy's entry into the war, was interested with Ambrogelli in a pre-Austrian paper at Vittorio. Monsignor Gerlach was once a cavalry officer, who became a priest and won the favor of the present pope when the latter was a cardinal.

STOCK SCANDAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Democratic majority of the rules committee voted today to report the Wood leak resolution adversely. This action operates to end the inquiry. The Republicans are willing to proceed with any kind of inquiry, but are solidly opposed by the Democrats, who concluded there was no ground in Lawson's charge on which to base an investigation.

Members disagree whether the leak inquiry is over. Representative Henry insists that the sub-committee dealing with Lawson's refusal to answer questions still exists and may take action.

Preston asked for revocation of Bopp's exequatur, which is the permission granted by this government under which he acts.

This recommendation was made some time ago and referred to the president, based on evidence submitted at this trial. United States Attorney General Gregory telegraphed congratulation on the conviction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The grand jury today handed down a second indictment in the Thaw case, making Oliver Brower, arrested in Philadelphia, defendant. He is accused of conspiring to kidnap.(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—Harry K. Thaw cut his throat and wrists in a private house here today and was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where he is believed to be dying, according to detectives who had surrounded the house.

5 p. m.—Thaw is semi-conscious and highly nervous, but has a fair chance of recovery. His wrists were hacked several times and two gashes were made in the throat, believed to have been cut with a razor. The house where he was found is near the street where Thaw was in an automobile accident last May. He came here Monday in connection with a damage suit resulting from the accident.

The whereabouts of Thaw, indicted on a charge of kidnapping and assaulting Fred Gump, Jr., of Kansas City, had remained a mystery to the district attorney and his corps of detectives searching for him.

Unofficially the belief was expressed at the prosecutor's office that Thaw had made his way to his home in Pittsburgh and there, under protection of his family, undoubtedly was being advised by competent counsel as to what course to pursue. The authorities here made detailed explanations as to how it happened he slipped through their fingers when they were "hot on his trail" both here and in Philadelphia shortly before and after the indictment was found against him.

His escape was explained by the fact, they said, that since he was so well known they gave their chief attention to arresting the man known to them as George O'Byrnes, indicted jointly with Thaw on the kidnapping count. While the police were waiting for an opportunity to catch O'Byrnes, Thaw escaped.

Although the arrest of Brower was at first a disappointment, the district attorney's men say they found him valuable in developing their case. A number of documents and letters having an important bearing on Thaw's relations with young Gump were found in Brower's possession and some of this evidence was presented before the grand jury. It was expected that another indictment might result.

Brower's movements were traced and it was found that subsequent to the alleged assault on Gump he had gone to a New York hotel. A suit case left there by Brower, having the letter "T" on it, was seized by the district attorney.

Meanwhile the authorities here say O'Byrnes has disappeared. They have no idea where he is and no better description of him than that given by the Gump boy to guide them in the search.

Frank P. Walsh refused to give any further details of the information he has against Thaw, saying that since it was inextricably bound up with the matter now before the grand jury it would be improper for him to say anything at present.

TERMS OF PEACE BY
ENTENTERESTITUTION AND REPARATION
TO COUNTRIES SUFFERING
WAR LOSSES

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Associated Press learns that the entente reply designates terms of peace, including restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro, complete reparation for their damage, evacuation of the invaded territory of France, Russia and Rumania, just reparation and liberation of Italians, Slavs, Rumanians and Czech Slavs from foreign domination.

Retirement of the Turkish empire from Europe is required. While Russia's claim to Constantinople is not specifically alluded to, the Turkish clause is considered indirectly to mean replacement of Turkey by Russia at the Dardanelles.

Assurances of Emperor Nicholas concerning Poland also are endorsed in the note, the terms of which provide for re-organization of Europe, guaranteed by a stable regime, founded on the respective nationalities, and full liberty and security for all great and small nations. While Alsace-Lorraine and the Italian Tyrol are not specifically named, the terms require restitution of the territories previously severed from the allied nations by force or contrary to the wishes of the populations.
